

Napa Valley Vineyard
Technical Group

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources

SUSTAINABLE VINEYARD PRACTICES – PART I

Leafroll Disease: Detection, Transmission & Management

Tuesday, February 28, 2012

8 a.m. – 12 p.m.

Yountville Community Hall
6516 Yount Street, Yountville

Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. with coffee and pastries

- 8:00 a.m. Introduction: Concerns about Leafroll Disease for Growers
Randy Heinzen, Beckstoffer Vineyards
- 8:15 a.m. Laboratory Testing: Everything Growers Need to Know
Vicki Klaassen, UC Davis, Foundation Plant Services
- 8:45 a.m. Beyond Laboratory Testing: Other Potential Methods for Monitoring Leafroll Disease in the Vineyard
Matthew Staid, VineView Imaging
- 9:00 a.m. Leafroll Disease Transmission Ecology: How do the Viruses Move?
Rodrigo Almeida, UC Berkeley
- 9:45 a.m. Managing Mealybugs as a Vector of Leafroll-Associated Viruses
Kent Daane, UC Berkeley
- 10:30 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. Working Together to Combat Leafroll Disease: Strategies for Neighborhood Groups
Neil McRoberts, Department of Plant Pathology, UC Davis
- 11:30 a.m. What is the Future for Clean Plant Material?
Deborah Golino, UC Davis, Foundation Plant Services
- 12:00 p.m. Conclusions: BMPs (clean plant material), testing, other red leaf concerns, management and economics
Monica Cooper, Napa County Viticulture Farm Advisor

4.5 HOURS OF CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS AVAILABLE

NVG & Vit Tech Member Admission: $15*

 Seminar Co-Hosts, the University of California Cooperative Extension & Napa Valley Vineyard Technical Group, are covering $45 of the regular $60 seminar admission fee for members of both organizations*

General Admission: $90

NVG Season Pass Event: $250 per person

(includes the 4-part Sustainable Vineyard Practices Series, Ahead of the Curve & the Organic Winegrowing Conference)

To register, visit www.napagrowers.org or call the NVG office (707) 944-8311

www.napagrowers.org